*The cool swift breeze of autumn,
The gentle rain of spring
Spark up forgotten memories
What new ones will they bring?*

*Looking now in retrospect
At four years just gone by,
To see the good and bad of things.
How quickly time did fly!*

*We laughed and joked and shared good times
And even shed some tears,
But really our best times have been
Within the past four years.*

*We labored hard and took great pains
For that which we have done,
But when we take a thoughtful look,
We've only just begun.*

*Graduation will draw us closer,
We will become one family,
And then we set out on our own
To live creatively.*

Define the meaning of life in 30 seconds!!!!

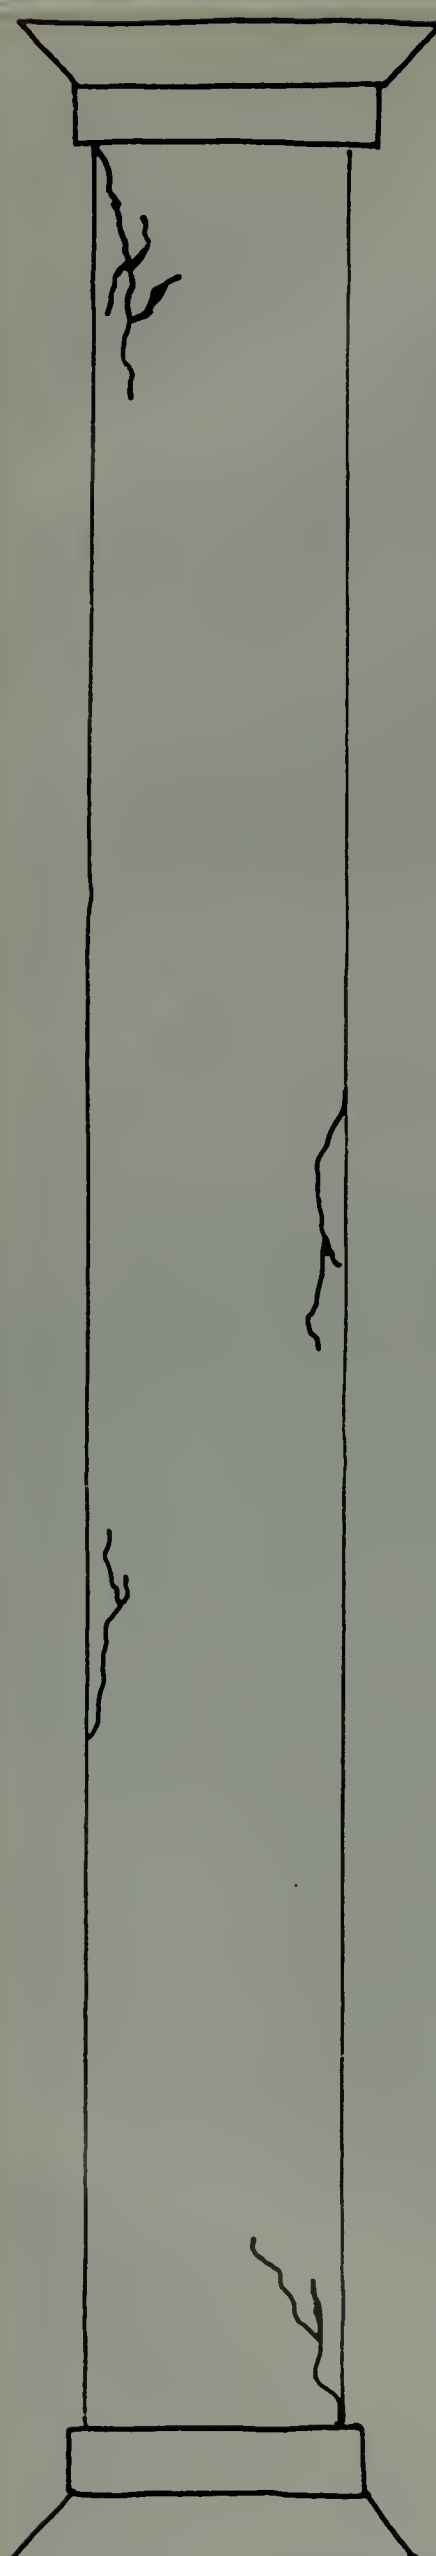

Eat your heart out . . .

— A Pupils Prayer —

Now I sit me down to study
I pray the Lord I won't go nutty
If I fail to learn this junk
I pray the Lord that I won't flunk
If I should die, give no pity at all
Just lay my bones in the study hall
Tell ol' teach that I did my best
And pile my books upon my chest
And now I lay me down to rest
I pray that I pass tomorrows test
If I should die before I wake
That's one less test
I'll have to take!!

Class

As freshmen, the class of 1992, entered King Philip led by President Brendan Monahan, Vice President Jason Morganelli, Secretary Erin Turner, and Treasurer Bonnie MacDonald. With Mr. Warren as our advisor, we began our venture into the unknown realms of "high school." We made a definite attempt to build a winning homecoming float with "We'll Take the Sting Out of the Hornets", but we realized that we would just have to wait for a victory. Our first freshman-sophomore semi-formal, "This is a Time to Remember", was held at the Coachman's Lodge in Bellingham on March 31, 1989. Alison Grote and Michelle Power represented our class in the court that evening.

Our sophomore year began with Brendan Monahan as President, Jason Morganelli as Vice President, Erin Turner as Secretary, and Bonnie MacDonald as Treasurer. Our sophomore float, "With K.P.'s Might We'll Rule the Knight" was an artistic wonder but was still a long-shot from being a winner. Although we couldn't win the class events, we still had a blast trying! The semi-formal "Faithfully" was held at Demetri's in Foxboro on March 23, 1990. Our Queen, Erin Turner and her court Ali Grote and Missy Gallimore were elected even though it became harder and harder to pick three from a class of such beautiful women.

Junior year we were under the leadership of Greg Foster — President, Jason Morganelli — Vice President, Erin Turner — Secretary and Bonnie MacDonald — Treasurer. Our float was a great one but still no winner. Without a trophy once again, we looked forward to our senior year. Our first prom "All of My Love" held at the Sheraton in Mansfield on May 17, 1991 was a great one. Our class was represented by Missy Gallimore and Kerri Stafford.

Senior year, our final year, we were led by Greg Foster — President, Maurice Ouimet — Vice President, Erin Turner — Secretary, and Bonnie MacDonald — Treasurer. Our senior prom, held on May 8, 1992 at Lakeview Pavilion in Foxboro, ended our four wonderful years. We had a great senior year and a great class. You all are great Class of 1992! Best of Luck to you all and we'll miss you!

Prom '91

Missy Galimore, Tracey McDonald, Laura Siekman, Jace Pearson, Debbie Figurelli, and Kerri Stafford.

The Junior Senior prom was held at the Sheraton in Mansfield on May 17, 1991. The theme was "All My Love". The elegant queen was Laura Siekman, and Jace Pearson was the dashing king. They were accompanied by the court Missy Galimore, Tracey McDonald, Laura Siekman, Jace Pearson, Debbie Figurelli, and Kerri Stafford.

"I think she went that way", Darin MacEachern.

"Looking forward to the time of our lives", Stacey Basset, Jim Sloper.

"So this is what it looks like inside!", Kevin McCasland, Jen MacRae.

"The five studs of the night!", J. Gugliotta, M. Gamble, B. Thomas, D. Toubeau, C. Pyne.

"Come get us if you can handle all three!", J. Morganelli, G. Foster, B. Eppley.

"The smashing duo!", Courtney Finley, Charlie Pyne.

"Too cute for words.", Carolyn Lamothe, Dana Pisani

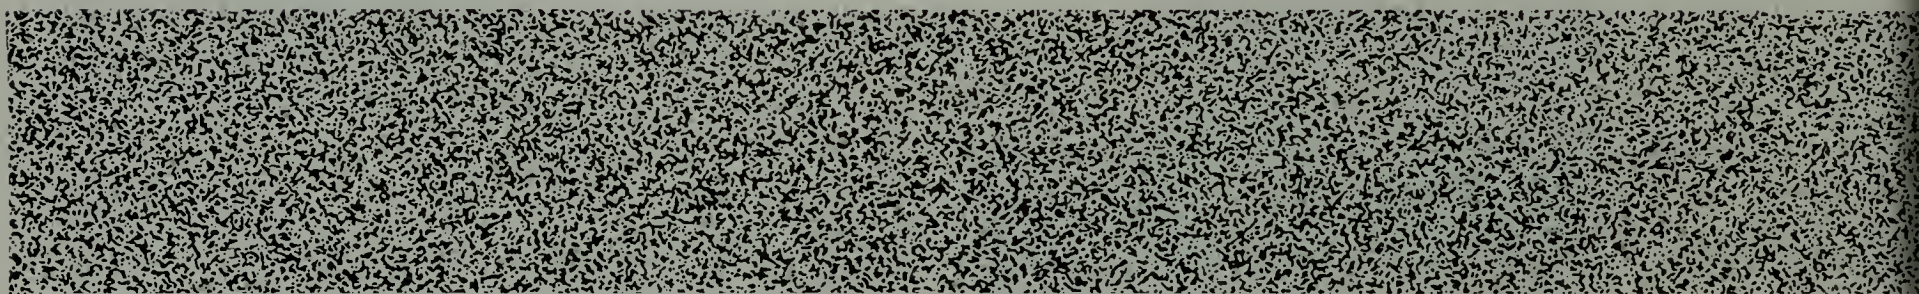

"Don't let go!", Jason Morganelli, Katie Palos.

This year, King Philip hosted three exchange students: Thierry Lemmers, Katja Hansen, and Francesca Bartorilla. These students have agreed to come to a new school in a different country where everyday living is drastically different from what they are used to. By having them here, KP students have learned of different customs and traditions of foreign lands. We have also become close friends with them, and we will miss them very much!

Class

Dear Mrs. Carneiro and Mrs. Tower,

After the 25th class reunion for the class of 1992, we discovered that everyone had achieved their goals in the lifestyles they had chosen. Some of the graduates have traveled around the world, while some have stayed in the area. Let us tell you what the alumni of the Class of 1992 are doing these days:

Australia seems to be the hottest spot these days, filled with KP graduates. One of its most famous inhabitants is Barri McCarthy who, along with her husband and pet koala, has a mansion in the middle of outback. She is known for her gala parties which are thrown for the most influential people in the world. We recently attended one and saw Olympic gold medal winners Michelle Doane and Tracey Sutcliffe, multimillionaires Matt Tibbets, Stacey Peloquin, and Bob White, and world travelers Jen Dumont and Doug Ford. Living right next door to her is Brenda Operach who has become a marine biologist. She works in the world famous Brisbane Institute for Marine Biology and Aquatic Sciences founded by Sean Cowley, who is also a member of the local volunteer fire department. He was recently called to action to help put out the fire at Andy Castro's winter home. Fortunately, Andy was vacationing in Hawaii at the time. During his vacation, he ran into

Mike Oliva who owns his own suntanning salon. Some of his favorite customers are Michelle Power and Joe Lewicki. Scott Down has also built his business empire there. The most recognized voice on the radio is KP's own Frank Sorrento. He recently received a call from Lorena Levesque who was sailing around the Caribbean on her yacht with her husband and seven children. She passed Ann-Marie Frechette on her yacht, and stopped over for some coffee. Also in the Caribbean is Brice Shepardson who is a bartender at Jebecka Manchester's Jamaican bar. All day long, they serve drinks on the beach to Laurie Ann Villano and the husband of her dreams. Terri Marshall is living in Europe taking in homeless children. Francesca Bartorilla and Katja Hansen are back in Europe teaching courses on how to "live it up" in America. Back in the United States, Alex Race is enjoying life in North Carolina, while Allison Moore is happily married in Colorado. Michelle Durrick, Tanya Saunders, and Kristen Johnson are all successful models in New York City. They model all of the clothes for two of the hottest fashion designers — Courtney Finley and Heather Blood. If you want to find Rob Young and Ken Guay, just look in hot tubs. Jeff Lizotte is now living in Maine as a hermit in his environmental dream house. Missy Gallimore can be found lying on a beach in South Carolina. Jimmy

Prophecy

Connell is living on a lake in New Hampshire. Helen Whitbread is teaching Hispanic children to speak English in Florida.

The teachers at King Philip prepared the class of 1992 well for the real world. Jeff Asci, Lori Shanks, and Matt Picanso have all gone on to become professional drafters. Lori Hanssen, Steve Conlin, and Amy Carroll are presidents of multimillion dollar corporations. When they fly on business, they call on their favorite pilot Mike Gamble, and his stewardess Bonnie MacDonald. Tim Doire has become a famous author, and Michelle Zassenhaus has made a tremendous impact on the art world. Janae Sinclair is a public accountant in California. Gerry Canelli is an electronic engineer who always finds time to fix lifecycles at Alison Grote's health club. Right next door is a hair salon owned by Julie Carlson, Becky Dunbar, and Jen MacRae, which gives free haircuts to the class of '92.

Some of the KP grads have become famous since leaving. On the sport scene, John Conley is a defensive lineman for the Los Angeles Raiders and he has made the Pro Bowl team for the fifth straight year. Dave Toubreau, the goalie for the Montreal Canadians, just received the MVP trophy from the President of the National Hockey League, Marc Devereaux. Over in England, Magdalena Suszcka won the Wimbledon Tennis Championship. Michelle Weaver and her assistant Pele are teaching soccer to some local kids, while Darren Mahoney and Heather Hadfield are always close by to help out. Some grads have hit it big in entertainment. Rick Copel and has taken over for Paul Schafer on the David Letterman show. Sandy Bontemps has her own talk show which just put out Oprah, Geraldo, and Donahue out of business. She recently had Michelle Lennihan, the new president of the United States, on to chat. Also on her show was Myriah Martucci, who is now the principal dancer in the New York City Ballet, Sean Walsh, who has recently hit the music charts with his 12th album, and Brian Texeira, who was the first man to circumnavigate the globe in a kayak.

On the unusual side of jobs, Brendan Monahan is a clown in Barnum and Bailey's Circus which is now owned by Becky Bailey. Traveling with Brendan is his "significant other" Tasha Pollard. Rob Anderson is lobbying to ensure freedom of speech to everyone. Sarah Braga owns a chain of Hot Diggity carts all over the world. Joe Keller is helping to clean the environment by picking up bottle caps. Christina Casiano sits on a park bench in Boston and plays music. Liza Regina has been selling homemade jewelry in the subway stations. Liz Flannery can always be found selling pottery on the beach. Dana Pisani has become an incredibly rich inventor, mainly due to the help of his wife, Carolyn Lamothe, who has successfully marketed all of his inventions. Sean Pollock has created a Kiwi fruit that does not bruise. Scott Fasulo has invented a hat which can be worn all year round. Gene Langlais has just invented a translight speed engine and has used it to conquer a small section of space. Steve Parastatides, Sarah Grich, and Steve Bencivenga, all famous advertisers, have sold many of their inventions, with the help of Jen Draheim and Michelle Hill, who have become successful in the marketing industry.

Erin Turner and Brian Thomas are teaching Phys. Ed. and coaching athletics at KP. Stefani Clark, one of KP's history teachers, is the new field hockey coach. Jamie Barrette is teaching the future drivers of the world in his own Drivers Education class.

The medical profession was a popular choice for the KP grads. Angie Duczakowski and Carl Olson are successful doctors, and, with Kim Schair assisting them, have just completed reconstructive foot surgery on Eric Frizzell. Chris Dunfey is now a well-known surgeon whose specialty is wrists. He works daily with Maria Menyo, the local X-ray technologist. Just the other day, Noel McLellan and Evan Williams were in for their weekly X-rays. Fortunately, they were in perfect health. Maurice Ouimet, Elizabeth Bristol, and John Abril, are all finishing medical school, learning the trade from pharmacist Danielle Brown.

Tami Dooley now owns the entire Papa Gino's chain, while Melissa McCormick is the proud owner of Chuck E. Cheese. They always give free food to the class of 92. Chuck Booth owns his own ski resort in Vermont. Tim Holms, Kurt vonHausen, and Jason Acord can always be found up there. John Gugliotta owns a bar and restaurant where Darren Daley and Jeff Janes are the head bartenders. Doug Terpstra, the chief of the FBI, always stops in for a drink. There he can meet Jason Richardson, the Ambassador to the Fiji Islands, and Sharon Sundberg, the Ambassador to Japan. After five years with the government, Ron Groves is an air traffic controller. Melissa Bryant, Phil Rogaris, and Tim Pike are all police officers. For the last two years, they have been chasing the infamous Jason Bishop, who, they believe, has been selling illegal weapons to Chris Cleveland. Unfortunately, they arrested Charlie Pyne instead, and he is now making license plates in prison. While in prison, he saw Joe Destefano and Mike Hagerty, two of the most infamous bank robbers of our time.

Joe Donahue owns one of the hottest clubs in the country. Brian McDevitt tries to get in, but he can't get past the bouncer, Chris Carew. If he was able to get in, he would find Jim Malcomson, Kevin McCasland, and Rob Patterson, who are there having fun. Candance Cherry is the disc jockey. She always finds time to play Kelley Finley's record since Kelley is out on tour with Jimmy Buffet and can't play live. Helping Kelley out while she is on tour are Laurie Hedtler, Scarlet Doyle, and Ann Andrews. While on tour, they keep busy by going sight-seeing. They recently went to a restaurant owned by Mike Bliss and Bruce Buchanan in Italy. There, they ran into Stacey Clarke, who was working for the famous photographer Leah Johnson. They all decided to take a tour of Rome, and surprisingly, Jen Ritchie turned out to be the tour guide. She showed them the home of Jen Farling, the pasta magnate, and the home of Heather Gallagher. At Heather's house, there was a large party, so they all decided to stop over. Joe Natoli, Jim Passanisi, and Stephanie Inman were all trying to learn Italian from Charlie Davis. Jason Marino was trying to see how much pasta he could eat, while Deborah Conforto and Rachel Bettencourt were tasting all of the fine wines in the cellar. Joe Lawrence was out in the driveway trying to start his brand new Italian sportscar.

Brian Eppley, Becky Andrews, and Greg Foster are training to be the next Olympic bobsledders. Wade Kammerer has entered the wrestling ring as the new Ultimate Warrior. Brian Wason was last seen scalping Red Sox tickets at Fenway Park. Chris Garrity is spending all of his time playing golf and tennis. Kerri Stafford is still driving around with a revoked license. Brad Hunsaker and Shad Vick can be found out west doing nothing. Chris Conklin is wandering lost somewhere in the desert. Tara Sumner and Donna

Wagner now own a professional hockey team in Colorado. Don't ask me how they did it, but Shawn Dearden and Brian Olson are making lots of money. Helena Norian is still driving really fast to nowhere. Hopefully, she'll land up at Thierry Lemmers' birthday party. Eric Dupree, Nancy Giovanoni, Gabe Wolloff, Cynthia Hoyle and Lila Swenson are among the lucky people to be happily married. We would like to ask you to keep your eyes open for Ryan Hazel, Anthony Longabard, and Tom Phelan, who have disappeared since graduation.

Sincerely,
Greg Foster

World

— On Wednesday, August 21, the leaders of the coup were reported to have fled Moscow. Tanks and armored personnel carriers moved away from Russian Parliament and leaders of the national legislature demanded that Gorbachev be returned to power. The Communist Party denounced the takeover.

As the school year began, Guns N' Roses' new album, "Use Your Illusion," hit the stores. The two-album set sold a million in no time. It was the group's first album in three years and, from what the critics said, it was worth waiting for. It hit the top of the charts the first week out.

As the school year began in September, 1991 President George Bush was trying to get his nominees to the Supreme Court (Clarence Thomas) and the Central Intelligence Agency (Robert Gates) successfully through the confirmation process. But two of his major tasks were peace in the Middle East and a lingering recession at home in the United States. And with a presidential election around the corner, the president was putting together his re-election team.

President Bush nominated Clarence Thomas, a 43-year-old conservative Republican, to replace the retiring justice Thurgood Marshall on the Supreme Court. Nearly three months later he was confirmed by the U.S. Senate by a vote of 52-48. But, it was a tumultuous confirmation process. After a series of public hearings, the Senate Judiciary Committee split 7-7 on his nomination. Just days before the full Senate was to vote, some serious allegations of sexual harassment were raised: Professor Anita F. Hill, a 35-year old law professor from the University of Oklahoma and former assistant for Thomas at the E.E.O.C., claimed she was the victim of sexual harassment while the two worked together about 10 years earlier.

During the war in Iraq, Saddam Hussein's forces ignited hundreds of oil wells in Kuwait. Smoke belched from the torched wells for many months afterwards. Satellite photos showed a black-grey plume swept south from Kuwait as far south as the Arabian Sea — equal to the distance from Manhattan to the tip of Florida.

The coup in the Soviet Union began on August 19, 1991. An eight-man committee led by Vice President Gennady Yanayev took power from President Mikhail S. Gorbachev. Yanayev said Gorbachev was ill. As Russian President Boris Yeltsin called on Russians to resist the coup, tanks and other military gear moved into Moscow.

As Russian President Boris Yeltsin called on Russians to resist the coup, tanks and other military gear moved into Moscow.

Tens of thousands of Iraqis were killed by the United States and its allies after Saddam Hussein invaded Kuwait. Hussein's soldiers retreated from Kuwait, leaving the country in shambles, but the Iraqi leader remained in power.

He isn't a big guy and he doesn't have a big voice, just a light, floating tenor. In an age of punk, heavy metal and robo-rock, Paul Simon sings harmonically and rhythmically rich melodies. The 49-year-old Simon and a 17-piece band drawn from five nations stepped on stage in Central Park in New York City for a concert.

One of the many rallying points for international environmentalists was the Brazilian rain forest. Thousands of square miles of forest were being cut down, and environmentalists from around the world petitioned governments, held rallies and led marches to stop the devastation.

Cross step and fire: that was Greg Foster's theory. Greg was the starting line varsity third baseman. He was awarded the All Star title, the defensive, award and voted in as a senior captain.

Chris McKeon: Starting line outfielder as a sophomore.

Coach Lombard

The first half of the 1991 season was tough, due to the lack of team experience. However, with the leadership of Greg Foster, Andy Arnold, Brian Thomas, Darren Mahoney, and Chris Dunfey, the team turned it around and had a productive second half of the season. Greg Foster and Andy Arnold were both named to the all-star team. The upcoming season is a promising one with 8 of 9 starters returning, including pitcher Brian Thomas who had many solid performances this past season.

How it right by: that's what Jeremy Cameron, sophomore starting catcher wanted.

Andy Arnold was the senior captain for the 1991 varsity team, he was their starting second baseman, and was awarded most valuable player.

ian Thomas played in the outfield as well as giving a great season pitching. He was voted sung hero, and senior captain.

Pat Wier was the starting center fielder as a sophomore, and receive the school record for no errors.

Seniors, Carrie Nagle and Jen Kelien were named Hockomock all-stars. The unsung hero was awarded to Kathy Griswold, and the team chose Carrie Nagle as MVP. Michelle Weaver and Bonnie MacDonald were chosen as the captains for the next season. Overall the team performed well and an even better upcoming season is expected.

Years open for Coach Goldberg's words of wisdom

Junior Kerri Stafford fluctuated between first and second doubles, and had a good season with Jill Canelli, (her sophomore partner)

Coach Murray led the boys tennis team to a 16-2 record. T Lazay, K VonHausen, and E Todd were the captains. E Peterson, R Todd, T Lazay, and E Todd were Hockomock All Star representatives. E Peterson received MVP, and M Griffin unsung hero.

KV The girls tennis team had a tough year struggling to win only one match. All the matches were close, and for such a young team they hung on well. The starting line consisted of only 2 seniors, 2 juniors, 3 sophomores, and 1 freshman. Hopefully next year the teams determination will shine through. Good luck next year!

John Conley and Greg Foster were elected to the All-Hockomock team, while Jim Malcolmson was named to several newspaper all-star teams for his work as a wide receiver and kicker. Jason Morganelli received the teams unsung player award for his unselfish plays on both offense and defense. Greg Foster was named MVP. To top off a great season John Conley became the second player from KP to be selected on the Shriners All-Star team. If there was one word to describe the 1991 team it's "family", because everyone worked together to achieve a common goal of being the best team in school history.

Chris Dunfey is one of the senior captains. He plays TB, Split End, and CB. Chris has started on both the offensive and defensive teams for his junior and senior years.

Hard work and an optimistic attitude have resulted in the best record in the last seven years for the Warriors. With their high level of performance, the team looks like a contender for a top spot in the league. The secret of their success has been their reliable goal tending and strong defense. While scoring 53 tallies, they have allowed only 33 goals, and posted their first shutout. On the horizon is the possibility of a birth in the state tournament.

Mike Savicki, freshman, "How does that taste, buddy!"

Basketball

This year's team, led by seniors Brian Thomas, Chris Dunfey, Greg Foster, and Brian McDevitt, has had its ups and downs, but the highlight of the season come in the second game against Sharon. King Philip beat the defending state champions, 69-53, in a convincing fashion. King Philip also broke Sharon's 26 game winning streak. The Warriors moved on to the state tournament for the first time ever at KP. Overall, we have had a great year, and we wish luck and success to the future Warrior basketball teams.

Amnesty International

Many nations possess and enforce the beliefs that all men are equal and have the right to their own religions and ideas. Unfortunately, there are countries who do not share such views and imprison individuals who do not conform to the restrictions they have imposed on their citizens. The King Philip chapter of Amnesty International, started in 1988, is part of a worldwide organization that works to protect the fundamental rights of all people. This group of students works to protect such prisoners of conscience through letters, petitions, and fundraisers.

This is a group of students who excel in academics. Additionally, the members are students of good character who participate in a wide range of extracurric-

No one can really know how difficult it is for one page of this book to be done, unless you are a member of the yearbook staff. Only a select few know how hard it is to turn a blank piece of paper into a finished page ready for print. It all starts out with an idea for a layout, then copy, artwork, photos, then captions are added. Before you know it our yearbook is complete.

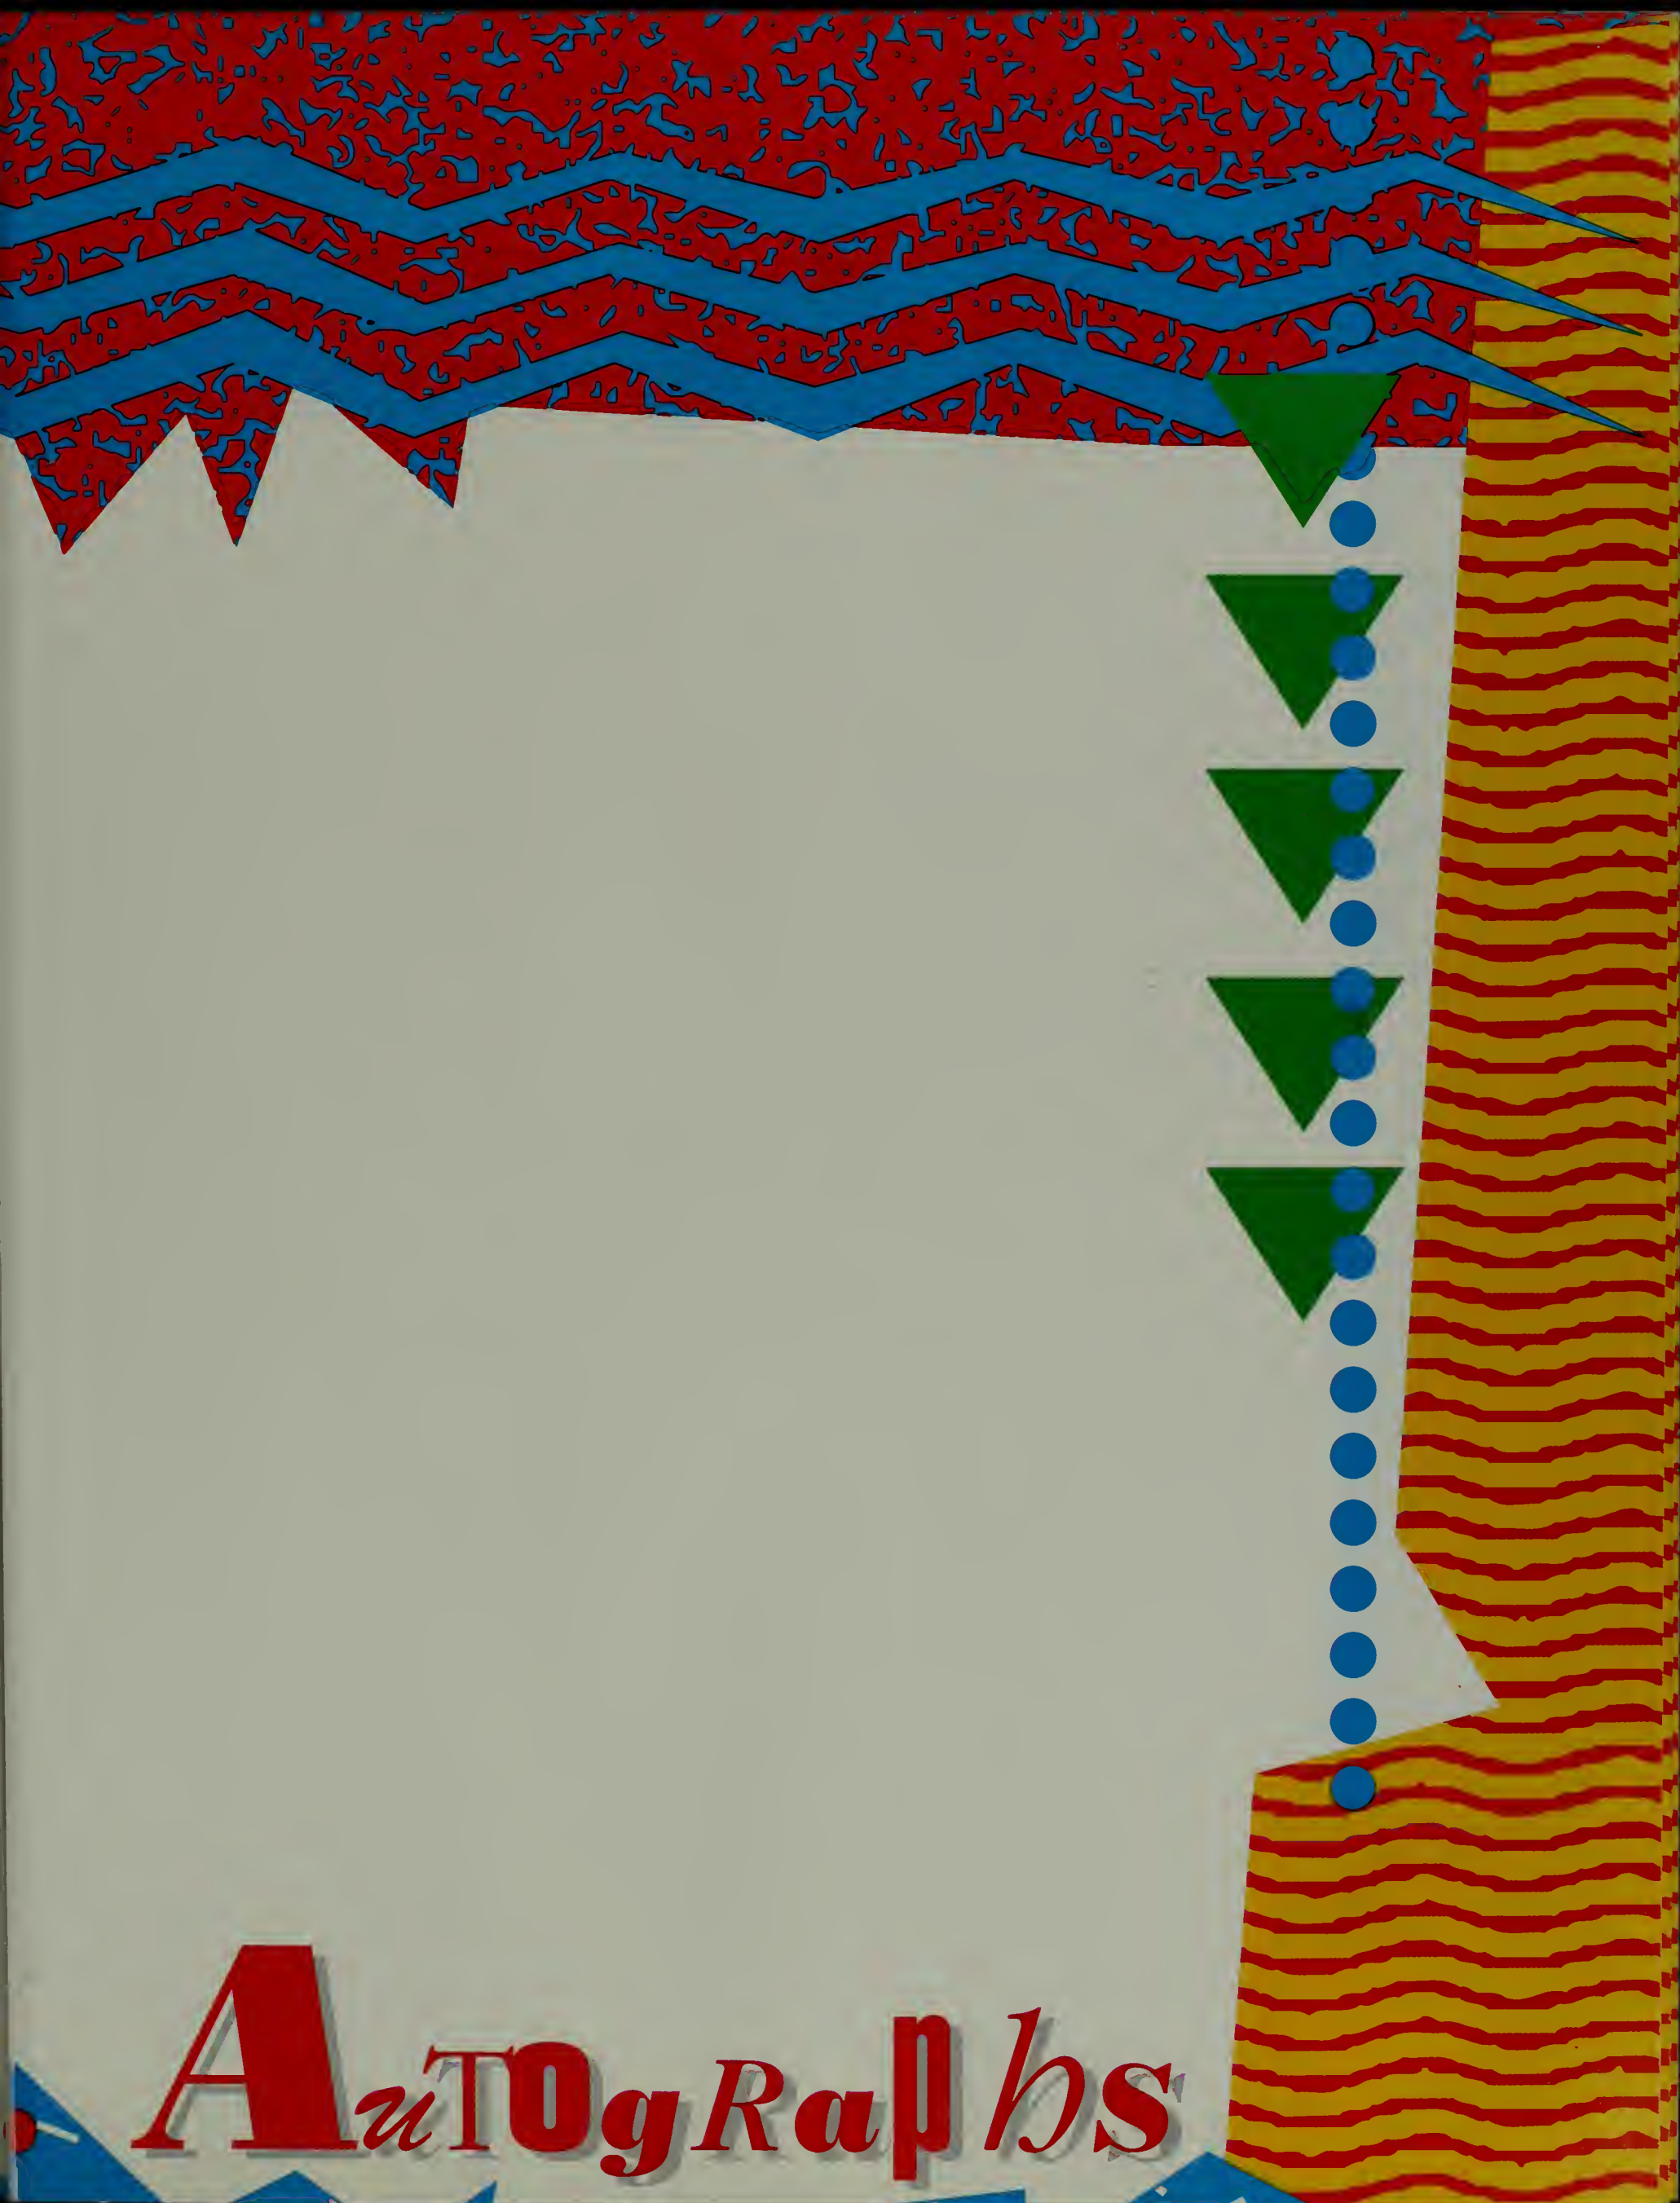

We would like to thank all of the dedicated people who helped; to those who pulled out some last-minute deadlines out of who knows where. We would like to thank those who did not quit on us but who hung in there to complete pages others had left behind.

A very special thank you to Sara Magill and Liz Bautz who took on the huge job of undergrads and did it beautifully. To Michelle Zassenhaus for all of her time and talented art work. To Michell Doane for always coming to meetings even though she was often too tired to stand up. Special thanks to Steve Bencivenga for his undying work and dedication selling ads! Has anyone ever sold more???

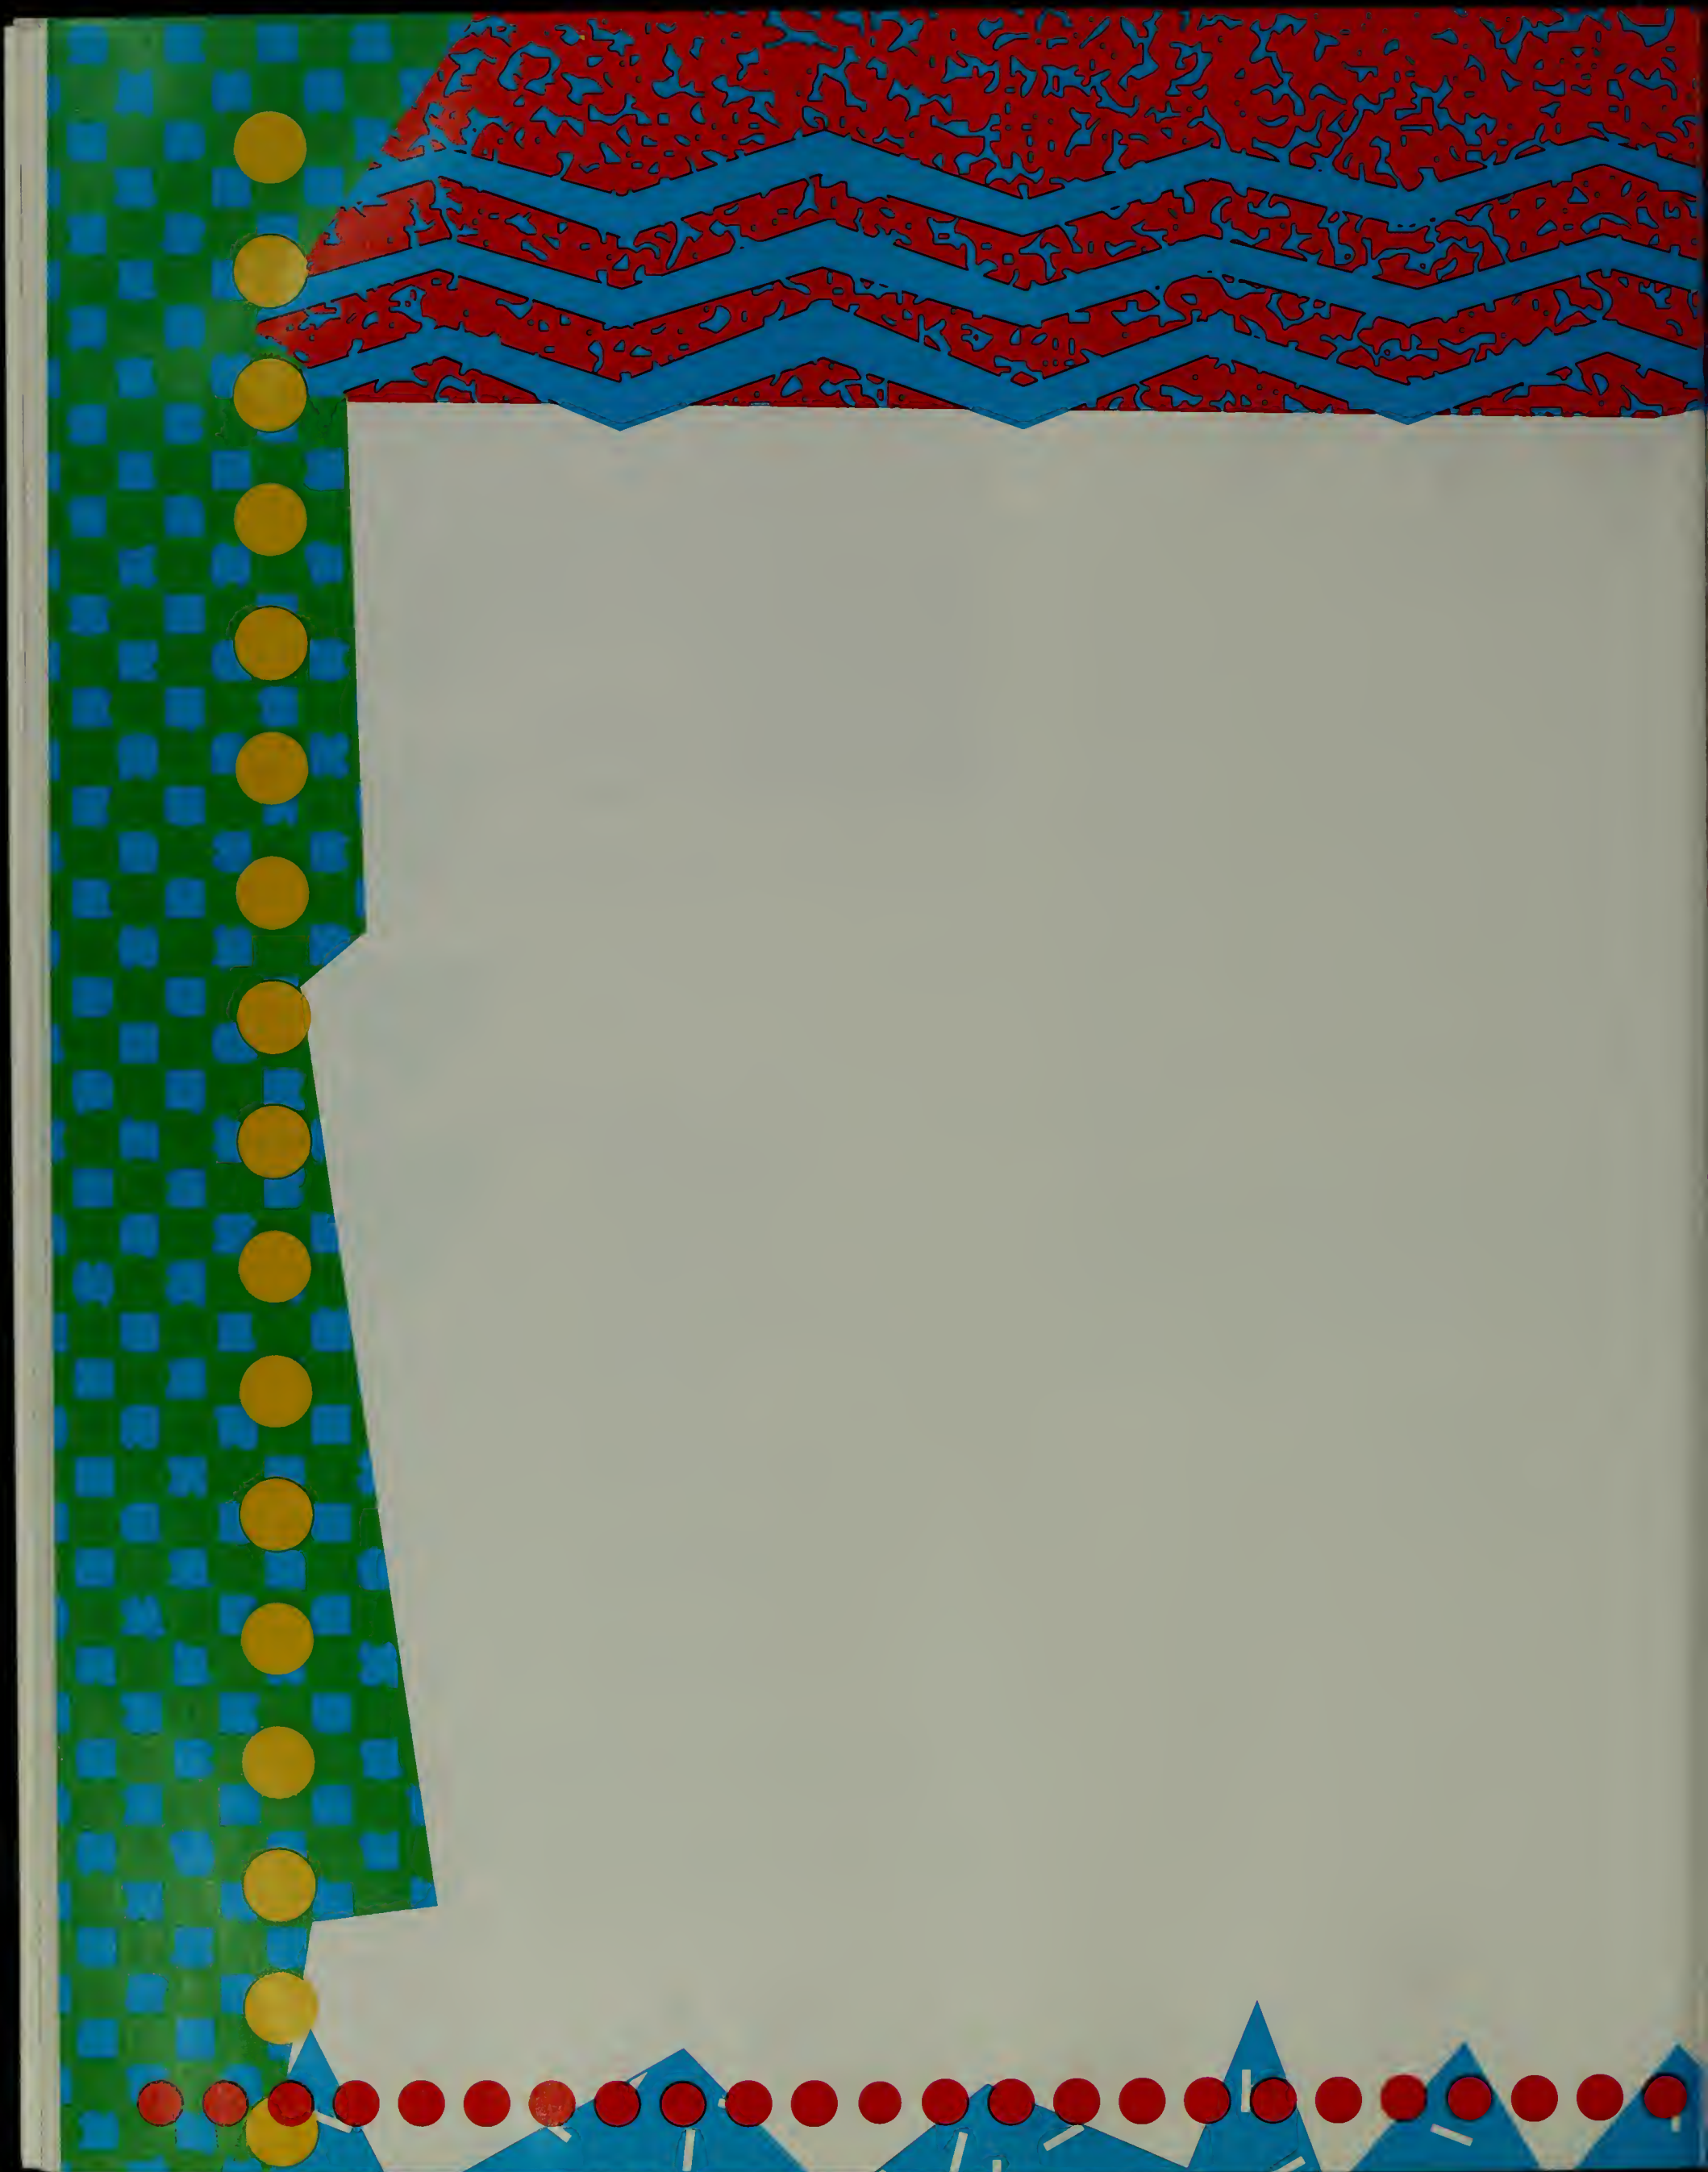

We would especially like to thank Arnie Lohmann, our yearbook rep. from Josten's. His expertise, tips and mostly his faith in us kept us going. Where would we have been without Mrs. Finley? Faithfully she came, every week, and supported us. How many mothers would have done all that she did on her one night off!!! To Joe Geoffroy (and his faithful assistants, Gary and Paul) the award of "Unsung hero." What is a yearbook without pictures? And yours Joe are the best!

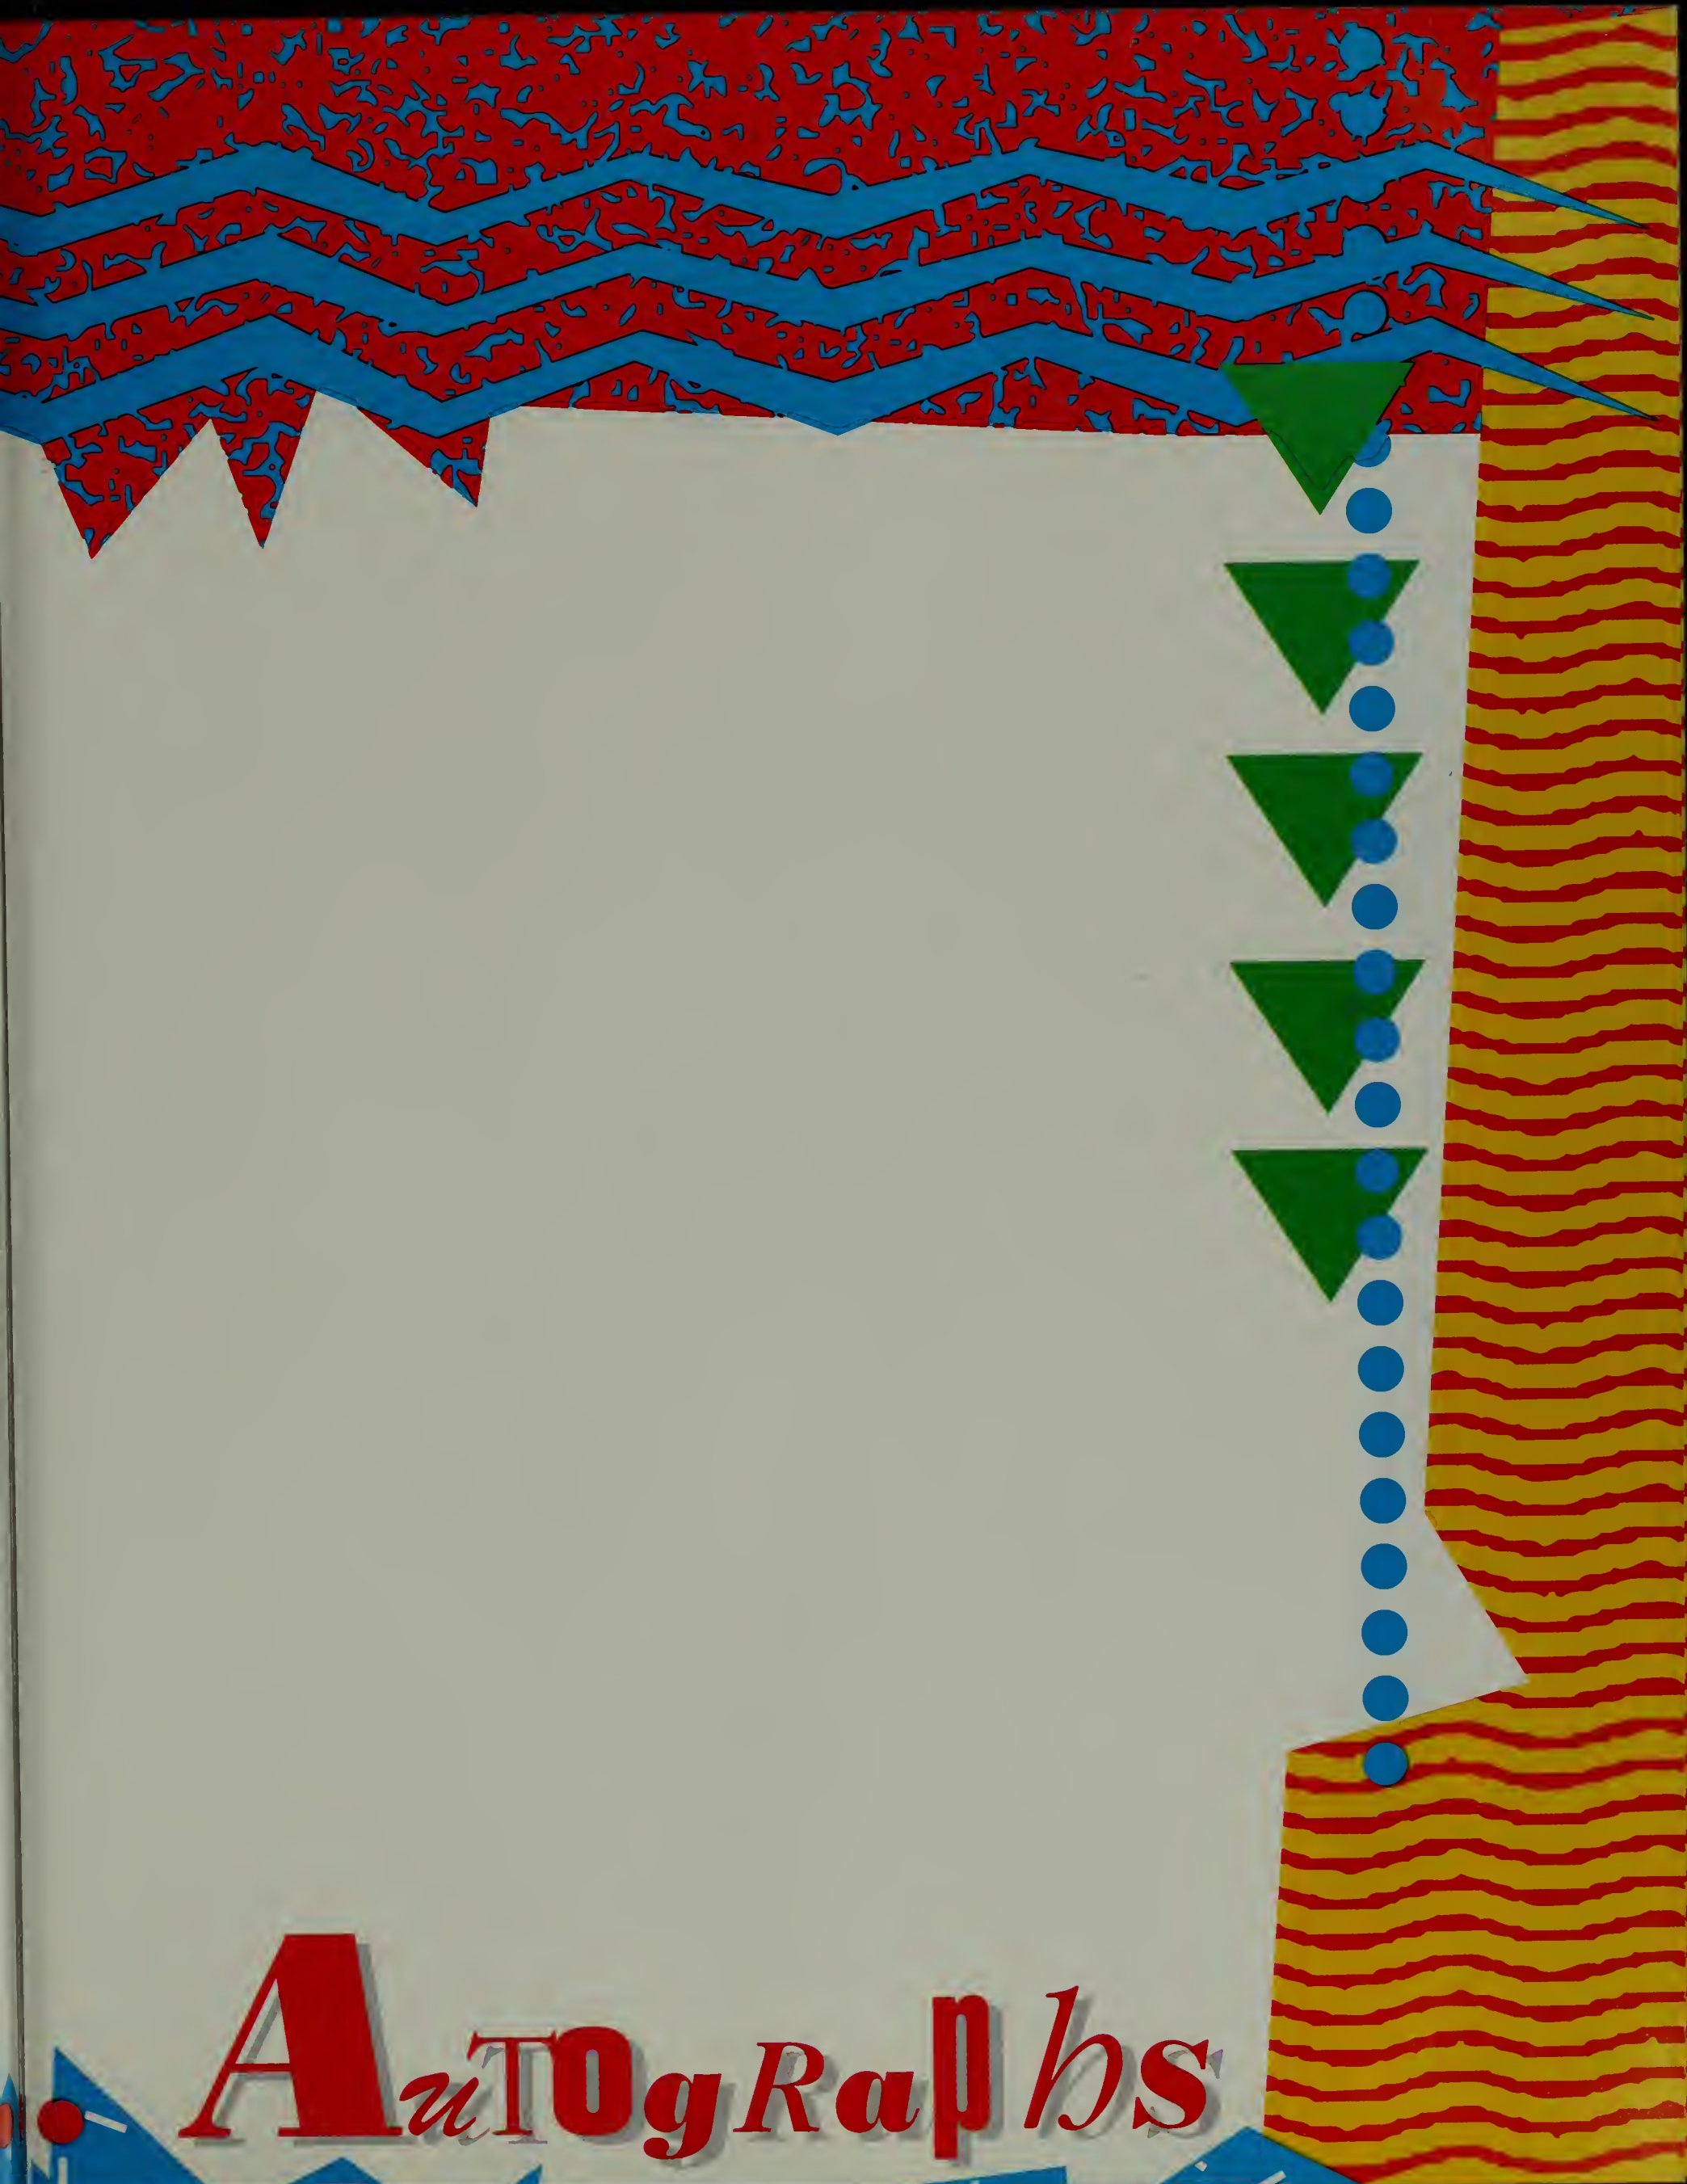

Above all, we would like to thank Mrs. Cooper. The advice, encouragement and refreshments (soda, candy and pizza) kept us going. We would never have done this book without her. And so we dedicate this book to her and to everyone who worked so hard to complete the 1992 Chieftain. To anyone not mentioned here you have not gone unnoticed, our thanks to everyone for making this yearbook a success.

Sincerely,
Sandy Bontemps
Courtney Finley
